

SUPPORTERS & FRIENDS

Egerton Music Festival would not be possible without the generous support of our sponsors and of the Friends of the 2025 Music Festival, all of whom provide not only much-needed financial support to ensure the quality of the programme and the affordable prices, but also encouragement and enthusiasm for our aims.

Vital too are the hours of voluntary effort provided by the many people who help organise the Festival and assist at each event.

EVENTS

WEDNESDAY 11 JUNE ARTS SOCIETY EGERTON LECTURE Lecturer: Patrick Craig

St Paul's was deprived of music after the Fire of London in 1666. In 1697 Christopher Wren was able to triumphantly declare 'RESURGAM'. The lecturer will look at music from either side of this momentous event and enthral us with music from across the liturgical year.

2.30pm - Millennium Hall
Arts Society members free
Visitors £6 payable at the door
(reimbursed if you join)

TUESDAY 24 & SUNDAY 29 JUNE EGERTON FOLK AND BLUES CLUB

Egerton Folk Club has evolved since its inception to embrace all genres of music and musicians, singers and poets at every level. The aim is to inspire would-be performers to realise their ambition in a welcoming setting.

Tuesday 24 June - 7-11pm
The Pavilion, the Moat, Charing

Sunday 29 June - 3-7pm
Barn at Potters Forstal Farm

Suggested ticket donation £3 per person
Under 18s free

THURSDAY 26 JUNE EGERTON FILM SOCIETY presents... The Umbrellas of Cherbourg

The story is told in song and successfully combines the operatic genre with a modern and poignant tale of ordinary life in France in the mid 20th century. A perfect starter to the Egerton Music Festival weekend.

7 for 7.30pm - Millennium Hall
£6

FRIDAY 27 JUNE THE FACCINI PIANO DUO

Elia and Betsabea Faccini formed their piano duo in 2015 while studying at the Conservatoire Luigi Boccherini in Lucca and have performed and won competitions, all over Europe. Their programme will include works by Ravel and Gershwin.

7.30pm - Millennium Hall
£15.00 (free for under 16s)

SATURDAY 28 JUNE - SUNDAY 6 JULY ART EXHIBITION

A vibrant collection of contemporary fine art, by 15-20 selected professional local artists/sculptors from around the county.

10am-6pm daily (9.30pm on concert days)
Games Barn (next to Millennium Hall)
Free entry

SATURDAY 28 JUNE BANDS AND BARBECUE

Following on from the success of this event at the last Festival, the best of the bands from local schools will play popular covers and their own work.

6.30pm - Millennium Hall
£10 (including barbecue)

SUNDAY 29 JUNE SING! Stevie Higgins and Friends

Join star singers Joanne Appleby and Andy Rees alongside Stephen Higgins on the piano for a night of memorable music making.

6.30pm for early supper
7.30pm for performance
Millennium Hall
£10, pizzas extra

TUESDAY 1 JULY MUSIC QUIZ

A Festival favourite, the music quiz is challenging but always fun and covers music of all kinds from pop to classical.

7.30pm - Millennium Hall
£5 or £30 for team of 6

WEDNESDAY 2 JULY KIM BEGLEY AND DAVID GAUKROGER are Flanders and Swann

Having performed as a tenor with the Royal Opera House, English National Opera, Glyndebourne, and the Metropolitan, Kim Begley now joins David Gaukroger and together they become Michael Flanders and Donald Swann.

7.30pm - Millennium Hall
£10

THURSDAY 3 JULY DUNCAN CHISHOLM AND BAND

One of Scotland's most recognised and accomplished fiddle players and composers, Chisholm creates 21st Century traditional music which is sophisticated, exhilarating and meltingly beautiful. He returns to Egerton for a second visit, by popular demand.

7.30pm - Millennium Hall
£20 (free for under 16s)

FRIDAY 4 JULY THE HAGUE TRIO

The Hague string trio, Justina Briefjes (violin), Julia Dinerstein (viola) and Miriam Kirby (cello), first came together in 2006 in The Netherlands and have been performing internationally ever since. Their latest recording, Celebrating Women, shines a light on previously unrecorded works by 19th and early 20th Century female composers.

7.30pm - Millennium Hall
£20 (free for under 16s)

SATURDAY 5 JULY PICNIC IN THE GARDEN

The Jerry Hatricks, three Egertonians, Ashley Ross (guitar & vocals), Sue Neame (vocals) and Jerry Crossley (mandolin, guitar & banjo) will be playing a range of popular songs alongside talented young local musicians. Bring your own picnic and enjoy a relaxed afternoon in beautiful surroundings.

2-5pm - Link House
£2 or £5 for a family

SATURDAY 5 JULY JAZZ SUPPER

What would the Festival be without the Jazz Supper? – and with fabulous food from Frasers and the hugely talented young (and one or two not so young) musicians of the Ashford Youth Jazz Orchestra, this promises to be another great evening!

6.30pm - Millennium Hall
£25

SUNDAY 6 JULY JANE WISELY - PIANO RECITAL

Egerton-based piano soloist, Jane Wisely, has been performing internationally recently but will return home for an afternoon recital.

3.30pm - Millennium Hall
£10 (free for under 16s)

SUNDAY 6 JULY THE SIXTEEN - LAST NIGHT CONCERT Conducted by Harry Christophers

A unique opportunity to hear the voices of ten of The Sixteen, conducted by Harry Christophers in St James' Church, Egerton. The programme will combine works by Byrd, Palestrina, Stanford and others with the spoken words of Wordsworth, Shelley and T S Eliot.

7.30pm - St James' Church
